

Science Day

November 29th 2006 - Riverglenn, 70 Kate St, Indooroopilly

The National Action Plan for Salinity and Water Quality Achievements in Science

Call for Registrations

A one day conference will be held on the 29th of November 2006, to celebrate the scientific achievements of the National Action Plan for Salinity and Water Quality's State-level Investment Projects. Presentations will cover scientific outcomes relating to:

Water Quality

Salinity

Sustainable Agricultural Production

NRM Capacity Building

Social & Economic aspects of NRM

Where: Riverglenn
70 Kate Street
Indooroopilly

When: 29th November 2006

Cost: FREE. But online registration is required for entry and must be submitted by the 20th of November, 2006

To register or obtain further information, including program details visit www.wqonline.info/science_day.html or e-mail ralph.dowling@epa.qld.gov.au